

same
033,- ange
rgest
for
s. An es' in
Ore-

rnier
bird
cre-
the con-

ds
acy
The
con-
of
of a
shen
ard,
obins
e of
each-
rses'
odist
ught
arles-
with
army
terne
Ad-
nap-
1512
dian-

ster
and
with
ill be mmer
rem-
and
Those
meet
'clock
ange-
strial
group.
mmer
C. A.
y dur-
under
strial

Arthur C. Sheas
Go to Wawasee

Leave After Wedding
Breakfast for Walter
Shea, Bride.

Following the wedding breakfast in their home yesterday morning for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cotter Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cotter Shea and their daughters, Martha and Sara Tyce, left for Lake Wawasee to spend the week end with Mrs. Shea's mother, Mrs. Reily C. Adams, at her cottage. The children will remain with Mrs. Adams for the summer.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Mary Whitecome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Whitcome of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Walter Cotter Shea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cornelius Shea, took place early yesterday morning in the impressive Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral.

Brother Is Attendant.

Only members of the immediate families attended the ceremony, performed by the Rev. George E. Dunn. The Rev. Henry J. Hermann celebrated the nuptial mass. Attendants were Mr. Shea's brother, Arthur Cotter Shea, and Mrs. Shea. The bride wore white and blue printed chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Shea was in shirred brown chiffon banded with white lace. Her corsage was of pastel flowers.

After the wedding breakfast for members of the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. Shea left for a motor trip. The at-home address will be 6255 North Pennsylvania street after Aug. 1. The bride studied at Columbia University. Mr. Shea was graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy and attended Georgetown University in Washington. He was graduated from Butler University.

Pole Becomes Citizen

MIS
daugh
ence
Penns
stalle
Temp
tomor
Ripple
officer
Malco
Jean
Jean
Crosb
will t

Bedr
Has
Han
(U.P.)
years
ridden
served
She
years.
as the
ceived
when
For Sprag
ter fr
of Wa
Mrs